OBEDIENCE TRIAL

UTILITY

1. 102. OC. Iniff Street Credit AD – Exhibitor JE Wilmot
This dog and handler showed the high degree of teamwork that only comes from experience. A few minor blemishes took the edge off a good steady performance.
2. 103 Iniff Excalibur – Exhibitor JE Wilmot
Another demonstration of excellent teamwork throughout the exercises with the dog displaying a high level of willingness to work. Unfortunately on the last exercise the dog retrieved the wrong glove, spoiling what would have been a very good performance
3. 101 Alimanda Last Legend AZ CDX – Exhibitor MA & RJ Parkinson
Unfortunately this dog did not retrieve the seek back article and was withdrawn by the handler. Having seen the dog work on previous occasions I know it is capable, but today is best forgotten.

OPEN

1. 102 OC Iniff Excalibur – Exhibitor JE Wilmot
The excellent teamwork shown in Utility was repeated in Open, but this time with no mistakes. An enthusiastic dog coupled with a skilful handler produced an excellent performance that was a pleasure to judge.
2. 103 Rovene Gamblers Corah CD – Exhibitor G De Ridder
This dog shows promise but was being distracted by the activities in the area. When the dog had it's mind on the job it showed good work, but needs to keep it's attention on the handler.
3. 104 Satyr Ida CD - Exhibitor MA & RJ Parkinson
Another young dog that needs experience to develop it's full potential. There were times when the dog worked well but the distractions on the day were a little too much for it to handle.
4. 105 Aldahoven Just Jazz AZ CD – Exhibitor A Rumble
Good work initially with skillful handling getting the best out of the dog. Unfortunately the dog did not respond to the recall command, which ended hopes of a pass. This dog should improve with experience.

NOVICE

1. 117. Siegerheims Jana – Exhibitor J & M Hartshorne
A very polished performance from a team that was well prepared for the trial. The handler had the total attention of the dog and was able to complete the exercises with loss of points from very minor errors only.

2. 111. Natchez Zippidoda – Exhibitor B Gunn
Generally good work was spoiled by the dog missing a lot of positions. The dog should improve with time and experience.
3. 109 * Arkahla Gonzo AZ H Neg – Exhibitor W & J O'Loughlin
The overall performance of this dog was good. There were a few minor problems with bumps and positions and a major problem when the dog lost attention in slow pace, then recovered.
4. 110 Sarazo Whistler – Exhibitor C & M Bavdekar
Handler nerves were a major contribution to the loss of points for this dog. The dog showed lots of attention to the handler and demonstrated a willingness to work.
5. 112 Vonpeta Ralph – Exhibitor L Taylor
Attention problems let this dog down badly. The dog missed too many positions and had the handler adjusting pace to compensate for its inattention. When the dog did pay attention, the work was good.
6. 114 Leberhine Matt – Exhibitor T Conway
The basic work of the dog was good but was marred by attention problems, sniffing, and missing positions. The recall was unique with about 2 meters of skid marks in front of the handler from where the dog was trying to stop.
7. 115 Shaitan Mums Lil Miricale – Exhibitor DJ Lock
Good work generally with a tendency to slow sits and downs. The dog got up on the recall and ended its chance of a pass.
8. 116 Sagenhaft Sheer Majic AZ TDX – Exhibitor J Doolette
Lack of attention was the major problem with this dog. The heel exercises require teamwork and this team need to spend a lot of time in developing both dog and handler.
9. 118 Bruangie Ultra Melody – Exhibitor D & Y Joy
This dog was another victim of inattention. There needs to be a lot of effort in getting the dog and handler to work together before their next trial
