NEDDERMEYER

MEMORIAL CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Sunday 7/6/26

Judge: Mr Peter Flynn

I would like to thank the club for given me the opportunity to judge the Neddermeyer Memorial Championship Show. Both Joylene and Juergen were important people at a state and national level, and made significant contributions to the German Shepherd Dog. I was also pleased to meet my fellow judge Martin Kelly Snr. The show was extremely well run, led by the show manager Judy O'Loughin. I would also like to thank my steward Mike Brown who kept the ring running smoothly all day, and my stenographer Donna Vigor, who kept up with my speedy critiques.

The show was held in lovely weather. While the entry of 56 animals was slightly disappointing, given the cost of fuel and close timing with the National Show it is understandable. Never the less the standard was quite high, with among the winners there was 3 Gold medal winners from the 2026 National exhibited. In general, the main issues were that most animals stepped close behind with slightly loose to loose hocks, some slightly deep hindquarter angulations, upper arms could be longer and better angled, and some short under chests.

Thank you to the exhibitors and handlers who showed great sportsmanship.
